About This Guide

San Jacinto College's brand is more than a logo or tagline. It entails how we convey the College's culture through imagery, writing, and graphic design. When these things come together consistently and cohesively, they differentiate us from our peers and help our stakeholders better understand a holistic view of the College along with its mission and vision.

This guide supports the creative decision-making process for the College. It also assists onboarding new employees and supports a comprehensive brand overview for education and industry partners.

What are we trying to do?

Our stakeholders' needs are constantly changing. Having a cohesive brand reinforces San Jacinto College as a leader in higher education by illustrating that we are supportive, innovative, and committed to empowering students to reach their educational goals while ultimately becoming their college of choice.

By consistently communicating our brand promise, the College will:

- Differentiate itself
- Unify messaging throughout the College
- Build trust and confidence with our stakeholders

Brand Components

This guide has been developed to educate our creative partners and the College community about the following:

OUR POSITIONING

How we help students accomplish their goals.

OUR PERSONALITY

How we sound and what we want to convey when we talk about ourselves, our values, and our aspirations.

OUR LOOK

How we are visually represented with consistency in print, digital, and video assets.

Our Positioning

San Jacinto College's official tagline, 'Your Goals. Your College.', reflects our commitment to helping students succeed—from admission to graduation. Our culture is built on support, innovation, and commitment to every student's journey. Whether they are earning credits, exploring lifelong learning, or taking classes in person or online, we meet the diverse needs of our students while remaining focused on their success.

Your Goals. Your College. MESSAGING ARCHITECTURE

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

Our Brand Personality

Our personality is a direct reflection of our culture, our people, and our vision.

Our Brand Personality Traits

Our brand personality is expressed in all that we do and say, as well as through the consistency and tone of our communications.

San Jacinto College's brand personality comprises three traits:

SUPPORTIVE

Nurturing
Empathetic
Optimistic
Confidence-building
Welcoming

COMMITTED

Credible
Dedicated Devoted Trustworthy
Focused

INNOVATIVE

Dynamic
Forward-looking
Thought leaders
Continuously improving

Our Sound

To establish consistent messaging, we must choose the right words and tone of voice to convey our brand personality.

PERSONALITY TRAIT: SUPPORTIVE

Within every student lies tremendous potential for greatness. They may have rough days, and we all do, so we empathize. We stand with them. When they struggle, we encourage. When they feel they don't belong in college, we welcome them with open arms.

SOUNDS LIKE THIS:

When it comes to teaching veteran students, Dr. Silva expressed that while every veteran's life is unique, their common ground is knowing that through training, study, and striving, any obstacle can be overcome.

NOT LIKE THIS:

Dr. Silva said that all veteran students can get through anything by sticking together.

PERSONALITY TRAIT: INNOVATIVE

We welcome change and are driven to lead by finding better ways to educate, train, graduate, and add value to every life we touch. Our stakeholders look to us for help, trusting that we have their best interest at heart.

SOUNDS LIKE THIS:

San Jac students and alumni made history by working on Odysseus, the first commercial spacecraft to land on the moon. Intuitive Machines' IM-1 lunar lander is also the first U.S.-built craft to touch down on the moon since NASA's final Apollo mission in 1972. San Jac's EDGE Center and Intuitive Machines partner to give students the skills and experience to stand out in today's job market.

NOT LIKE THIS:

San Jac students helped build Odysseus, which landed on the moon Feb. 22. It's the first U.S. craft on the moon since 1972. San Jac partners with Intuitive Machines to teach job-ready skills.

PERSONALITY TRAIT: COMMITTED

Seeing our students, employees, and community members succeed is not only our passion; it's our purpose. We are here to serve our diverse stakeholders, no matter where they are in their educational and professional journeys. Whether it's providing information to prospective students, pointing current students to the right resources on campus, or partnering with industry leaders for enhanced learning experiences, we are dedicated to enriching the quality of life of the communities we serve.

SOUNDS LIKE THIS:

As the country's second-largest producer of process operator graduates, San Jacinto College designed the LyondellBasell Center for Petrochemical, Energy, & Technology to provide unrivaled, hands-on training in real-world labs.

NOT LIKE THIS:

The LyondellBasell Center for Petrochemical, Energy, & Technology trains current and future industry professionals.

Writing Tips

THE SPIRIT OF “YOUR GOALS. YOUR COLLEGE.”

When writing about the College, think about words that exemplify the College’s official tagline, “Your Goals. Your College.”

The phrase illustrates what the College is to that individual stakeholder (e.g., the College is a teacher/training expert, provider of information, industry training partner, builder of self-confidence, etc.).

Word choice illustrates the value the College brings to the target audience and the intent of the specific written piece (news story, flyer/ad/brochure copy, web content, social media post, etc.).

WORDS WE USE

Who we are:

Intentional
Dedicated
Inclusive
Futuristic
Caring
Resourceful
Adaptable
Focused

What we do:

Educate
Train
Inspire
Collaborate
Innovate
Develop Empower

Writing Do's

READABILITY

Ensure that your message is easily understood and accessible to your audience. Our audiences often scan text, so think about how you can communicate your ideas efficiently. Focus on main ideas – use bite-sized content or bullet points rather than long paragraphs.

BE ENGAGING

If you maintain your audience's attention, your message will be memorable and impactful. Use relatable stories and compelling visuals that resonate with your audience.

Writing Don'ts

AVOID SJC

The preferred way to refer to the College is “San Jacinto College” on first reference, and “the College” or “San Jac” for all second references. Never use San Jac College or San Jacinto.

AVOID ACRONYMS WITH NO REFERENCE

The field of higher education is full of acronyms, but some audiences may not be familiar with them. Spell out all acronyms on first reference, then use the acronym alone in remaining references.

AVOID LONG RUN-ON SENTENCES

With so many sources of content vying for our attention, it's important to write in a way that can be quickly scanned. Many people will not read word-for-word, so be succinct, yet creative and impactful with your words.

Our Look

The image of San Jacinto College is a combination of our logo, typeface selection, color palette, and application of photography and images. A consistent look and feel in our communication materials will provide a lasting impression on our students, employees, and stakeholders.

Logos

OUR LOGO

There are two approved San Jacinto College logos — one with a tagline and one without. Both logos comprise the college name in a customized type style along with a service mark (trademark) symbol. The style, size, and positioning of the symbol and tagline make the logo unique. Always download ready-to-use, approved San Jacinto College logos rather than creating your own or altering an existing one.

The tagline version is used for official projects, such as the annual report and commencement program. It can be used in other publications when deemed appropriate.

Anatomy of our Logo

WORDMARK

Our wordmark is the San Jacinto College name in the font Sabon Bold.

SYMBOL

The symbol comprises the interlocking SJC in a stylized font. The Wordmark is always used with the symbol. In very rare instances when there are extreme space limitations, the symbol can be used alone.

TAGLINE

The tagline should be centered under the wordmark and symbol. It is typeset in the font Sabon Italic.

SERVICE MARK

The service mark (SM) is required on our logo, located in the upper right-hand corner.

OUR LOGO IN COLOR

The color version of the logo is the primary version and is made from San Jac Blue (Pantone 2945C). This version should be used in most standard applications.

OUR LOGO IN BLACK AND WHITE

Solid black should be used in materials produced in black and white. All white is acceptable when using the logo on a dark background.

Co-Branded Logos

When partnering with the College, the following examples illustrate the proper presentation of the logo.

CENTER FOR PETROCHEMICAL,
ENERGY, & TECHNOLOGY

San Jacinto College Logo Clear Space

To give the logo the maximum amount of emphasis, a clear zone surrounding the logo must be maintained. The space is measured by the height of the “C” in College as shown. Space between the symbol and the wordmark is half of the “C” space.

The only element that can intrude on the clear zone is the tagline, campuses, and departments.

Leave “breathing room” around the logo.

Logo Minimum Size

The minimum size the logo can be printed measures 1.50 inches in length.

1.5 inches minimum

1.5 inches minimum

SJC Interlocking Logo

The interlocking SJC logo may be used as a graphical element when the design is part of a larger scoped project, such as a multi-page brochure. It may also be used in very small spaces, such as a mobile digital ad. In all other cases, the full San Jacinto College logo needs to be used.

Seal

The San Jacinto College seal is the official academic signature, reserved for formal documents of the highest rank, such as those from the Board of Trustees, Chancellor, and other top administrators. It appears on diplomas, certificates, legal documents, and other formal materials.

Department and Other Entity Logo Standards

As integral parts of the College, departments and other entities must use the designated logo format to maintain a cohesive brand identity. No modifications or alternative logos are permitted. This standard also applies to entities such as campuses, initiatives, work groups, committees, centers, clubs, etc.

Consistency in branding strengthens the College's identity, while unauthorized variations dilute brand integrity and create confusion for our audiences. Adhering to these standards ensures clear and unified representation across all communications.

These logos are stored on the employee intranet, The Exchange, in the marketing department section.

ADVISING, CAREER &
TRANSFER

The department or entity name
should not exceed two lines. Kerning
can be adjusted if needed to fit.

San Jacinto College Logo Do's and Don'ts

The best way to make sure our logos remain professional and consistent is to follow these requirements. Here are some examples of correct and incorrect uses of our logo that will help you stay on track.

DO's

1. Do use the primary logo on a solid, not busy, background.
 2. Do give the logo visibility.
 3. Do include the service mark (SM) with the logo.

DON'Ts

1. Do not alter the logo colors. See next page.
2. Do not disproportionately scale or stretch the logo.
3. Do not recreate the logo using another typeface.
4. Do not link the logo with another logo or symbol. If co-branded with partner logo, please follow designated style and seek marketing assistance.
5. Do not use a different tagline.

Ravens Mascot

San Jacinto College has a long, rich history of both athletic and academic success. The College's mascot and persona represent not only student-athletes but all students, student organizations, employees, donors, sponsors, and proud alumni.

Athletic programs, students, employees, alumni, faculty, and campus groups may use the mascot to promote their activities. But they must follow the mascot brand guidelines.

RAVENS MASCOT LOGO

The Raven, chosen as the College-wide mascot in 2023, has deep roots in our institution's history. This new generation of the Raven embodies strength, confidence, and resilience—qualities that reflect our students, our employees, and community.

The Raven is the official mascot logo and a registered trademark of the College. To maintain its integrity, it must not be altered in any way.

While the mascot serves as a spirited symbol of our community, it does not replace the official San Jacinto College logo, which must be included in design projects featuring the mascot. Athletic usage is the exception, and does not require the official San Jacinto College logo.

There are two versions of the Raven mascot.

RAVENS MASCOT LOGO (HEAD)

Our Raven mascot is available in full color and single color versions. The single color can be used in black or reversed out in white when used on a dark background. The logo incorporates a raven head and the San Jac Ravens wordmark. Both elements are part of the mascot and need to be used as shown. Note that the wordmark is placed at an angle and should not be used in any other position.

COLOR MASCOT LOGO

(includes both Raven head illustration and wordmark)

1-COLOR MASCOT LOGO

(includes both Raven head illustration and wordmark)

Mascot logo clear zone

To give the logo maximum impact, maintain a clear zone around it.

The space is measured by half the height of the full mascot logo as shown.

Logo minimum size

The minimum size the mascot logo can be printed measures 1.25 inches wide as shown.

For smaller applications like a pen, use the San Jac Ravens wordmark.

RAVENS MASCOT LOGO (RAVEN IN FLIGHT)

A second option is the Raven in Flight logo, that is also available in full color or single color black or white. When using the color logo, care needs to be taken to ensure it is on a solid light color to ensure contrast.

When using this mascot logo, the wordmark - San Jac Ravens - and the raven illustration must be used together so the Raven is not used as a stand alone graphic.

INCORRECT MASCOT LOGO USAGE

Consistent use of the logos is key to maintaining an effective graphic identity for the College. If the mascot logos appear in altered or modified forms, they become less reliable as symbols of the College.

The following are examples of inappropriate usage of the San Jacinto College mascot logo and graphic. Reproduce the logos and graphic exactly as they appear in College-approved digital files.

If you see the mascot logos in an unapproved, modified form or have a question about usage, please contact the marketing department.

Do not use the Raven head on its own. Use the entire artwork with the head and San Jac Ravens word mark.

Do not use the Raven head with any other text.

Do not use AI generated Raven artwork.

Don't crop the mascot graphic. Show the entire artwork.

Ensure there is sufficient contrast between the logo and background color.

No element repositioning

No placement on busy backgrounds

No altered proportions

No added graphics

Photography/Imagery

In our media-rich culture, photos can convey our message more quickly than text. This allows an opportunity to tell the story and exhibit our values without needing to explain.

HERE IS A GUIDE TO HOW WE SHOULD REPRESENT OUR COLLEGE THROUGH IMAGES:

- Choose images that will create an emotional connection with the viewer.
- Crop, dodge (lighten), and burn (darken) areas within a photo to strengthen the story of a photo and create intimacy with the viewer.
- Include action and reaction photos.
- Include a variety of photo compositions (a mix of medium, detail, close-up shots) that help tell the story.
- Choose natural lighting when possible.
- Incorporate bokeh (out-of-focus areas) and dynamic angles.

Image Branding

It's important to be aware of colors in photos. When possible, incorporate the branded colors, blue and/or golden yellow, into your images. For example, pull in a blue napkin or swag from an event, have the blue sky as a backdrop, position the shot so the College name or logo are in the background, choose to photograph people wearing blue or yellow.

USING BRAND COLORS

Image Requirements for All College Images

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS

- No chewing tobacco or gum
 - Minimal jewelry
 - Fingernails, body art, and body piercings should not be a distraction
 - Include a diverse representation of students, faculty, and staff when composing photos.

APPAREL REQUIREMENTS

- San Jacinto College logo apparel preferred when applicable (i.e. program advertising photos)
 - Aim for seasonless attire; avoid sweaters and flip-flops
 - Prefer blouse or shirt with collar rather than T-shirts; no cleavage
 - Avoid busy patterns or narrow stripes; no solid white shirts
 - Company logos and shirts with slogans are to be avoided (i.e. Nike, PINK, etc.)

SAFETY AND IMAGE REQUIREMENTS FOR PROGRAM PHOTOS

For photos featuring students or faculty in the classroom or training site, verify they are following the proper PPE requirements. Each program is slightly different, so an instructor needs to be on-site to ensure all protective gear is being worn in the photos.

HEALTHCARE PROGRAMS

- Hair pulled back
- No nail polish or fake nails or tips
- Nails cannot extend 1/4 inch beyond fingertips
- Body tattoos must be covered
- No facial piercings
- Clean shaven
- Gloves, when required
- Clean scrubs/uniform
- Badge should be visible

INDUSTRIAL PROGRAMS

- Hair should be tied up under hard hat photos in the field
- Goggles or safety glasses with side shields (goggles can be visible on hard hat)
- Hard hat with San Jacinto College logo; no ball cap under hard hat
- Gloves should be on when touching equipment or near equipment; gloves should always be visible, even if not wearing.
- Hearing protection
- Close-toed shoes
- Badge should be visible

Photo Examples

All photos below reflect examples of the San Jacinto College photography style.

Legal Requirements

All publications require the Equal Opportunity Statement. Publications aimed at current students or College employees should use the full version whenever possible.

SHORT VERSION (when limited space is available)

An Equal Opportunity Institution

FULL VERSION

The San Jacinto College District is committed to equal opportunity for all students, employees, and applicants without regard to race, creed, color, national origin, citizenship status, age, disability, pregnancy, religion, gender, sexual orientation, gender expression or identity, genetic information, marital status, or veteran status in accordance with applicable federal and state laws. The following College official has been designated to handle inquiries regarding the College's non-discrimination policies: Sandra Ramirez, Vice Chancellor of Human Resources, 4624 Fairmont Pkwy., Pasadena, TX 77504; 281-991-2659; Sandra.Ramirez@sjcd.edu.

Applications

When applied consistently, our positioning, personality, and look can create an emotional connection and convey a powerful, positive message about who we are and aspire to be. The goal is for our stakeholders to easily identify graphics, publicity, and marketing materials as belonging to San Jacinto College.

Avoid abbreviations in running text.

professor Smith, not Prof. Smith

Use abbreviations and ampersands (&) when they are included in running text and part of a formal name.

Robbins, Schwartz, Nicholas, Lifton & Taylor, Ltd.

Sears, Roebuck and Co.
(NOT Sears, Roebuck & Co.)

Avoid using abbreviations for an organization's name unless the agency or organization is known by its abbreviation: FBI, CIA, FCC. Do not use abbreviations or acronyms that the reader does not quickly recognize.

academic degrees

If mention of degrees is necessary to establish someone's credentials, the preferred form is to avoid an abbreviation and use instead a phrase such as: John Jones, who has a doctorate in psychology.

Use an apostrophe in bachelor's degree, a master's, etc., but there is no possessive in Bachelor of Arts or Master of Science.

Also: an associate degree (no possessive); Associate of Applied Science in process technology (example of formal degree title) with exception to Bachelor of Science in Nursing.

Use such abbreviations as B.A., M.A., LL.D. and Ph.D. only when the need to identify many individuals by degree on first reference would make the preferred form cumbersome. Use the abbreviations only after a full name – never after just a last name.

When used after a name, an academic abbreviation is set off by commas: Daniel Moynihan, PH.D., spoke.

Do not precede a name with a courtesy title for an academic degree and follow it with the abbreviation for the degree in the same reference:

Wrong: Dr. Pam Jones, Ph.D.

Right: Dr. Pam Jones, a chemist

academic courses (See course titles.)

academic departments

Use lowercase except for words that are proper nouns or adjectives or part of a formal name: the department of history, the history department, the department of English, the English department, or when department is part of the official and formal name: San Jacinto College Department of Theatre and Film. However, always capitalize English when referring to the English department.

Keep departments, offices, and programs lowercased except when preceded by San Jacinto College.

academic titles

Capitalize and spell out formal titles such as chairman, dean, etc., when they precede a name. Exception: The title of Chancellor is capitalized before and after a name. Lowercase all other titles elsewhere.

Chancellor Brenda Hellyer
Brenda Hellyer, Chancellor, spoke. (Used only for the Chancellor)
Dr. Brenda Hellyer, San Jacinto College
Chancellor said, "...". (first reference)
"...". added Dr. Hellyer. (second reference; applies to Chancellor only)

Joanna Zimmerman, associate vice chancellor for student development, talked to students about...

Dr. Allatia Harris, vice chancellor, San Jacinto College Strategic Initiatives, Workforce Development, Community Relations and Diversity; second reference, Harris.

Lowercase modifiers such as department in department chairman Randy Snyder.

acronyms (See abbreviations.)

ACT

Use only the initials in referring to the previously designated American College Testing.

addresses

Use the abbreviations Ave., Blvd., and St. only with a numbered address: 1250 Maple St. Spell them out and capitalize when they are used with a street name but no number: Maple Street. Lowercase and spell out when used with more than one street name and no numbers: Maple and Oak streets. All other words such as alley, drive, road, etc. are spelled out.

Always use figures for an address number:
1200 W. Algonquin Road.

Spell out First through Ninth when used as street names; use figures for 10th and above:
135 First St., 1010 31st Ave.

Abbreviate compass directions in street addresses: 650 E. Fifth Street, 700 N. Palatine Road. Addresses in running copy are separated by commas: San Jacinto College, 4624 Fairmont Parkway, Pasadena, TX 77504. When listing mailing addresses, use the two-letter state postal abbreviation. Use ZIP code-plus 4 digits when possible.

Use official names of offices: Registrar's Office, Human Resources Department, etc. in mailing addresses.

advisor

Use advisor with the –or ending on all references.

affect, effect

Affect (verb), to influence. Do not use affect as a noun. The game will affect the score.

Effect (verb) means to cause; (noun) means result. She will effect changes in the company. The effect was clear.

African-American

Acceptable for an American black person of African descent. Also acceptable is black.

ages

Use figures for ages. He is 6 years old. Hyphenate ages when they are used as adjectives before a noun. A 10-year-old girl, but the girl is 10 years old.

all right

Never alright.

alumnus, alumni, alumna, alumnae

Use alumnus (alumni in the plural) when referring to a man who has attended a school. Use alumna (alumnae in the plural) for similar references to a woman. Use alumni when referring to a group of men and women.

ampersand (&)

Use only when part of a company's formal name: Robbins, Schwartz, Nicholas, Lifton & Taylor, Ltd. Do not use in place of and.

Annual Fund

apostrophes (')

Do not use apostrophes when using plurals for dates and abbreviations: 1990s, 1880s, Ph.D.s, B.A.s, 20s, VIPs, ABCs

Use apostrophes for single letters: He received three A's on his report card. Do not put quotes around grades. A's, B's, C's.

Asian-American

A person of Asian birth or descent who lives in the U.S. When possible, refer to a person's country of origin. For example: Filipino-American or Indian-American.

B

Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN)

See academic degrees.

benefiting

black

Acceptable for a person of the black race. African-American is acceptable for an American black person of African descent. Do not use colored as a synonym.

Board of Trustees

Capitalize when referring to the San Jacinto College Board of Trustees. Capitalize Board or Trustees when they are used alone or in second reference.

The Board members voted. The Trustees were appointed.

Note: When referring to boards of trustees besides San Jacinto College, lowercase on all references. (This would be incorrect if we were mentioning the full name of another board -- e.g., the Pasadena ISD Board of Trustees.)

Building names

San Jacinto College building names will be written with "and" rather than an ampersand (&)

*The San Jacinto College South Campus
Engineering and Technology Center*

Note: The only exception is the LyondellBasell Center for Petrochemical, Energy, & Technology.

Campus

Capitalize on all references: San Jacinto College North Campus, San Jacinto College Central Campus, San Jacinto College South Campus, San Jacinto College Generation Park Campus, San Jacinto College Martime Campus, San Jac Online, the North and South Campuses.

capitalization

In general, avoid unnecessary capitals.

Capitalize course titles, except for articles, prepositions and conjunctions. Do not use ampersands in course titles. PSYT 2331 Abnormal Psychology, Professor Smith is teaching Fundamentals of Music Theory in the fall.

Capitalize grade letters. Do not put quotation marks around grades: A, B, C, D, F

A grade of C or better is required to pass this course.

Chairman

Use chairman instead of chair.

Mr. Dan Mims is Chairman of the San Jacinto College Board of Trustees.

College

Capitalize College on second reference, and all references thereafter, when referring to San Jacinto College. San Jacinto College is in Pasadena. The College offers many programs.

See San Jacinto College.

commas

The following guidelines treat some of the most frequent questions about commas. Additional guidelines on specialized uses are provided in separate entries such as dates and scores

For detailed guidance, consult the punctuation section in the back of Webster's New World College Dictionary.

IN A SERIES: Use commas to separate elements in a series: The flag is red, white, and blue. He would nominate Tom, Dick, or Harry.

In sentences where an integral element of a series requires a conjunction (e.g., ham and eggs), place this item last in the series, if possible, and do not separate this phrase with a comma before the conjunction: I had orange juice, toast, and ham and eggs for breakfast.

Use a comma also before the concluding conjunction in a complex series of phrases: The main points to consider are whether the athletes are skillful enough to compete, whether they have the stamina to endure the training, and whether they have the proper mental attitude.

See dash and semicolon for cases when elements of a series contain internal commas.

WITH EQUAL ADJECTIVES: Use commas to separate a series of adjectives equal in rank. If the commas could be replaced by the word and without changing the sense, the adjectives are equal: a thoughtful, precise manner; a dark, dangerous street.

Use no comma when the last adjective before a noun outranks its predecessors because it is an integral element of a noun phrase, which is the equivalent of a single noun: a cheap fur coat (the noun phrase is fur coat); the old oaken bucket; a new, blue spring bonnet.

WITH NONESSENTIAL CLAUSES: A nonessential clause must be set off by commas. An essential clause must not be set off from the rest of a sentence by commas. See essential clauses, nonessential clauses in the main section.

WITH NONESSENTIAL PHRASES: A nonessential phrase must be set off by commas. An essential phrase must not be set off from the rest of a sentence by commas. See essential phrases, nonessential phrases in the main section.

WITH INTRODUCTORY CLAUSES AND PHRASES: A comma is used to separate an introductory clause or phrase from the main clause: When he had tired of the mad pace of New York, he moved to Dubuque.

The comma may be omitted after short introductory phrases if no ambiguity would result: During the night he heard many noises.

But use the comma if its omission would slow comprehension: On the street below, the curious gathered.

WITH CONJUNCTIONS: When a conjunction such as and, but or for links two clauses that could stand alone as separate sentences, use a comma before the conjunction in most cases: She was glad she had looked, for a man was approaching the house.

As a rule of thumb, use a comma if the subject of each clause is expressly stated: We are visiting Washington, and we also plan a side trip to Williamsburg. We visited Washington, and our senator greeted us personally. But no comma when the subject of the two clauses is the same and is not repeated in the second: We are visiting Washington and plan to see the White House.

The comma may be dropped if two clauses with expressly stated subjects are short. In general, however, favor a comma unless a particular literary effect is desired or it would distort the sense of a sentence.

INTRODUCING DIRECT QUOTES: Use a comma to introduce a complete one-sentence quotation within a paragraph: Wallace said, “She spent six months in Argentina and came back speaking English with a Spanish accent.” But use a colon to introduce quotations of more than one sentence. See colon.

Do not use a comma at the start of an indirect or partial quotation: He said the victory put him

“firmly on the road to a first-ballot nomination.”

BEFORE ATTRIBUTION: Use a comma instead of a period at the end of a quote that is followed by attribution: “Turn in your assignment,” Miss Cawley said.

Do not use a comma, however, if the quoted statement ends with a question mark or exclamation point: “Why should I?” he asked.

WITH HOMETOWNS AND AGES: Use a comma to set off an individual’s hometown when it is placed in apposition to a name (whether of is used or not): Mary Richards, Minneapolis, and Maude Findlay, Tuckahoe, New York, were there.

If an individual’s age is used, set it off by commas: Maude Findlay, 48, Tuckahoe, New York, was present.

WITH PARTY AFFILIATION, ACADEMIC DEGREES, RELIGIOUS AFFILIATIONS: See separate entries under each of these terms.

NAMES OF STATES AND NATIONS USED WITH CITY NAMES: His journey will take him from Dublin, Ireland, to Fargo, North Dakota, and back. The Selma, Alabama, group saw the governor.

Use parentheses, however, if a state name is inserted within a proper name: The Huntsville (Alabama) Times.

WITH YES AND NO: Yes, I will be there.

IN DIRECT ADDRESS: Mother, I will be home late. No, sir, I did not take it.

SEPARATING SIMILAR WORDS: Use a comma to separate duplicated words that otherwise would be confusing: What the problem is, is not clear.

IN LARGE FIGURES: Use a comma for most figures greater than 999. The major exceptions are street addresses (1234 Main St.), broadcast frequencies (1460 kilohertz), room numbers, serial numbers, telephone numbers, and years (1876). See separate entries under these headings.

PLACEMENT WITH QUOTES: Commas always go inside quotation marks.

WITH FULL DATES: When a phrase refers to a month, day, and year, set off the year with a comma: Feb. 14, 1987, is the target date. See semicolon.

Commencement, commencement

Capitalize when referring to San Jacinto College Commencement. Lowercase on second reference or when referring to formal commencement exercises.

composition titles

Use quotation marks for titles of articles and features in periodicals and newspapers, chapters of book titles, essays, and titles of songs or short compositions.

English faculty member Elizabeth Turner wrote the essay “Teaching Willa Cather in May Sarton’s ‘Faithful Are the Wounds’”

Co-sponsor (hyphen)

Corequisite (no hyphen); also prerequisite (no hyphen) course titles

Capitalize all words in a title, except lowercase articles (a, an, the), conjunctions (and, but, or, for, nor), and prepositions regardless of length.
See capitalization.

course schedule (two words)

Lowercase and use to refer to continuing and professional development and credit course schedules.

course work (two words)

credit hours

Use numerals to refer to credit hours (no hyphens).

Three credit hours.

BUT She is enrolled in a four-credit-hour course.

current, currently

Avoid use of current and currently because it is redundant.

Incorrect: He currently works at the college.

Correct: He works at the college.

dashes

Use em dashes (—) to set off phrases where something more than a comma is needed. Do not use spaces between the em dashes.

Correct: San Jacinto College—named after the area—is located in East Harris County.

Incorrect: San Jacinto College—named after the area, is located in East Harris County.

Use en dashes (–) for ranges in years, page numbers, times, etc. with no spaces between the dashes.

Examples: 2002–2003, 1998–1999 (repeat the full year on second reference for ranges), pages 125–258, 10 a.m.–3 p.m.

database (one word)

dates

Time, date, and place should always be in the following order:

- at 6 p.m. Friday in the theater
- at 10 a.m. Tuesday, April 1 in the Interactive Learning Center

Use the year with the month only if the date does not fall in the current year.

Do not use endings -st, -nd, -rd, -th with dates
April 1 event, not April 1st event

Use a comma before and after the year if a month and date appear with it: December 31, 2003.

Do not use a comma between the month and year when it stands alone: December 2003.

Decades may be referred to as: the 1980s, the 1990s, etc. Do not use an apostrophe. Use numerals.

days of the week

Do not abbreviate. Capitalize them.

degrees (See academic degrees.)

department names (See academic departments.)

disabled, handicapped, impaired

Do not use disabled or handicapped to describe a person. Avoid mentally challenged and other descriptions that may evoke pity. Instead use people with disabilities.

dollars

Always lowercase.

Use figures and the dollar sign ($).

Tuition costs $33 per credit hour.

He donated $600,000.

She paid $36.95 for a book.

The building costs $88 million.

Do not use $36.00. Omit the zeros.

ellipsis (...)

Use an ellipsis to show deletion of one or more words in sentences or quotes. Leave one space on both sides of the ellipsis: The car ... is on the bridge. If the sentence ends with an ellipsis, leave the period that would have ended the sentence....

email

Lowercase email. Hyphenate and lowercase e-commerce, e-business, e-shopping. San Jacinto College email addresses should be lowercase: john.smith@sjcd.edu. Avoid breaking email addresses in a line of text.

Equal Opportunity statement

See our website for the full statement that should be used on all material that will be handed to students.

F

Fall (See seasons.)

fax (lowercase)

foreign students

International students is preferred.

freshman, freshmen

Freshmen is plural, but use freshman when referring to freshman courses, freshman year, freshman class. Avoid confusion by using first-year students.

full time, full-time

Hyphenate as an adjective before the noun. Otherwise use two words. She works full time. He has a full-time job.

fundraise, fundraising (one word)

G

grade point average (GPA)

grades

Always capitalize. Do not put quotes around grades. You must earn a C to complete the course. See apostrophes and capitalization.

graduation (See commencement.)

Lowercase on all references.

H

Hispanic

Capitalize Hispanic. Latina (fem.) and Latino (masc.).

hyphens

Hyphens are joiners. Use them to form a single idea with two or more words.

In general do not hyphenate words that begin with the prefixes, after, anti, bi, by, co, ex, full, in, non, pre, post, re, semi and un unless the prefix ending is a vowel and the other word begins with the same vowel: re-elect, pre-election, co-op.

Always hyphenate self: self-government. Hyphenate words with prefixes when they are used in front of a formal name: anti-American, post-Renaissance.

When in doubt, look up the word in Webster's New World College Dictionary to determine if it is hyphenated.

No hyphen - Do not hyphenate the following words: noncredit, nonprofit, corequisite, prerequisite

I

Internet Guide

Some commonly used internet and computer terms:

cell phone (two words)

login, logon, logoffMP3*offline *(no hyphen)online *(no hyphen, one word)screen saver *(two words)URL

The URL is the Internet address. Avoid breaking an Internet address in text. When the address does not fit on a line, then break it into two or more lines without adding a hyphen.

international students

International students is preferred to foreign students.

See bias-free language.

Jjunior, senior

Abbreviate as Jr. and Sr. only with full names. Do not use a comma: Martin Luther King Jr.

LLatina, Latino

Latina, Latino is preferred to Hispanic, but either is acceptable.

Mmidnight/noon

Do not put 12 in front of either one. When referring to a time, it is preferable to use 12 p.m. or 12 a.m.

See time.

months

Capitalize the names of months in all uses. When a month is used with a date, spell it out. Spell out months when they stand alone or with a year.

February 14, 2002; January 2, 2001; April 1989

more than, over

Use more than when referring to numerals: More than 50 people came to the party. Their salaries increased more than 2 percent. Use over to refer to spatial relationships: The plane flew over the house.

multicultural *(no hyphen, one word)N*Native American

American Indian also is acceptable.

noncredit *(one word)nonprofit *(one word)numbers

Spell out one through nine. Use numerals for 10 and above. They have six children. There are 10 people in the family. Do not start a sentence with a number.

Incorrect: 60 students were in the class.

Correct: There were 60 students in the class.

A sentence may start with a year.

1978 was a great year.

For ordinals, spell out first through ninth when they indicate sequence in time or location: first base, First Amendment. Use numerals for 10th and above.

Oon campus, on-campus

Two words. Hyphenate as an adjective before a noun.

I work on campus.

She has an on-campus job.

The police department

campus police

Bruce Caldwell, chief of police, San Jacinto College

Bruce Caldwell, San Jacinto College chief of police

City of Pasadena Police Department

professor

Do not abbreviate. Lowercase before a name unless starting a sentence with professor. Use instructor instead of professor according to employee directory. Use faculty as a collective noun to include professors and instructors. When in doubt about a person's title, refer to the employee directory.

room numbers

Capitalize room when used with figures or a specific name of a room: Room 205, Blue Room, San Jacinto College building room numbers should be written as: C45.1119 (no dashes) See building names.

S

San Jacinto College

Use San Jacinto College on all first references. Capitalize College on second and subsequent references when referring to San Jacinto College. For official or legal documents, the College must be referred to as San Jacinto Community College District.

Using San Jac in athletics stories, direct quotes, and as second reference in less formal publications (not high-level publications) is permitted.

See College.

San Jacinto College Foundation

Capitalize Foundation on second reference when referring to the San Jacinto College Foundation.

seasons

Lowercase spring, summer, fall, and winter when referring to an academic term or calendar season.

semester

Lowercase except at the start of a sentence. Spring semester, fall semester, and summer session are available for registration.

spacing

In writing, especially for news releases and all printed materials, use one space after a period at the end of a sentence instead of two spaces as in the English grammar style.

spring (See seasons.)

state names

Spell out states when they are used alone in text. Abbreviate states when used with the name of a city, town, village, etc. Use the following state abbreviations in text. (ZIP code abbreviations are in parentheses and should be used only with complete mailing addresses.) These abbreviations come from the standards used by the AP Stylebook.

Ala. (AL)	Md. (MD)	N.D. (ND)
Ariz. (AZ)	Mass. (MA)	Okla. (OK)
Ark. (AR)	Mich. (MI)	Ore. (OR)

Eight states are never abbreviated in datelines or text: Alaska (AK), Hawaii (HI), Idaho (ID), Iowa (IA), Maine (ME), Ohio (OH), Texas (TX) and Utah (UT). See addresses.

summer (See seasons.)

telephone numbers

Many people use periods to separate telephone numbers. According to AP, figures and parentheses around the area code are used to keep a consistency with a format the telephone companies established. However, the following format is suggested for telephone numbers: 281-998-6150. For telephone extensions: 281-998-6150 ext. 6100.

Theatre

Use this spelling with the ending -re for all uses when referring to a Theatre unless noted otherwise: Theatre San Jacinto, San Jacinto College Central Campus Department of Theatre and Film.

For titles of plays, other performance works, and character names, use quotations instead of italics.

times

Use a colon to separate hours from minutes: 11 a.m., 1 p.m., 3:30 p.m., 9-11 a.m., 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Avoid such redundancies as 10 a.m. this morning, 10 p.m. tonight, or 10 p.m. Monday night.
